SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On August 7, 2019, the Commission published a schedule for the conduct of the final phase of the subject investigation (84 FR 38643). Subsequently, on August 21, 2019, the Department of Commerce ("Commerce") notified the Commission that Commerce and certain Mexican tomato producers/exporters initialed a draft agreement to suspend Commerce's antidumping duty investigation on Fresh Tomatoes from Mexico. The Commission, therefore, is revising its schedule.

The Commission's revised dates in the schedule are as follows: requests to appear at the hearing must be filed with the Secretary to the Commission not later than September 17, 2019; the prehearing conference will be held at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building on September 19, 2019, if deemed necessary; the prehearing staff report will be placed in the nonpublic record on September 3, 2019; the deadline for filing prehearing briefs is September 10, 2019; the hearing will be held at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building at 9:30 a.m. on September 24, 2019; the deadline for filing posthearing briefs is September 30, 2019; the Commission will make its final release of information on October 17, 2019; and final party comments are due on October 21, 2019.

For further information concerning this proceeding, see the Commission's notice cited above and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, part 201, subparts A through E (19 CFR part 201), and part 207, subparts A and C (19 CFR part 207).

Authority: This investigation is being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to section 207.21 of the Commission's rules.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: August 30, 2019.

Lisa Barton,

Secretary to the Commission.
